A Sure Sign of Croup. Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the ap-proach of the disease. If Chamber-lain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by M. M. Lewis, druggist.

Carnegie Asks $125,000,000

Andrew Carnegie has signed his name to a document in which he states that for the sum of $125,000,000 he will part with his entire holdings in the Carnegie-Phipps-Frick plants, This document is an option on all of Mr. Carnegie's vast productive interests, and is now in the hands of Henry C. Frick, Mr Carnegie's part-ner, who went to Scotland to get it. Mr Carnegie will take part payment in cash and the rest in 5 per cent bonds of the reorganized corporation. Five per cent. of $125,000,000 is $6, 250,000. The reorganization plan has been submitted to several New York banks. Mr. Carnegie owns 75 per cent. of the concerns which bear his name, and Mr. Frick 23 per cent. at $167,000,000, and Frick's share at about $40,000,000 before the recent enormous rise in value of all iron and steel products.

Pain-Killer, the old and well-known remedy has acquired a world-wide renown for the cure of sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, indigestion, cramp or pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, diarrhora and dysentery. In has lost none of its good name by repeated trials but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest. Avoid substitutes, there is but one pain-Killer, Perry Davis', Price 25c and 50c.

A Father At Eighty-Nine.

The news has reached the city that Uncle Billie Pearson was a few nights ago presented a bonnoing baby boy by his wife who is very much younger than Uncle Billie. Mr. Pearson, and everybody knows Uncle Billie, is now 89 years of age. He was rearsed in this county, and lived in the Goshen country qutil last fall, when he moved to Tennessee. He was married when quite a young man, and his first wife lived with him for 60 years. When he was past 80 years old she died, and within a year or two he married again. By this second wife he had two child-Some three years ago the second wife died. Without much loss of time he married a third wife this time choosing a sister of his second wife, and by this third wife two children have been born, the last one only a few days ago. The friends of Uncle Billie in his old home send congratula-tions to him on his success as a family raiser. - Bowling Green (Ky.) Journal.

Miss May Goelet, daughter of the late Ogden Goelet, of New York, and heiress to $20,000,000, is to become the bride of Prince Henry of Orleans, "head of the House of France, "and grandson of King Louise Philippe, it is announced. The young man in the case is not rich and is not of much account otherwise, apparently, but his friends say that a wealthy wife is all that is neccessary to make a man of him. Miss Goelet has recently concluded, it is father stated, to make her home in Paris after heitating for some time between that capital and London.

Cleveland Had a Hard Time in Getting His Vote In.

Grover Cleveland, ex-P. enident of the United States, round peculiar difficulty in exercising his right of franchise last Tuesday at Princeton,

He was obliged to stand in line for a long time only to have his vote re fused because he had gone to the wrong polling place. When he went to the proper booth he was ordered away and roughly admonished by a town official.

In the first place, Mr. Cleveland had trouble in finding the proper place to east his vote. According to the local arrangements, there was a first and a second place for voting, half the residents of the town being registered in one place and the other half at the second one.
About 10 o'clock in the morning

Mr Cleveland drove leisurely down to the polls at Odd Fellows' Hall. Alighting from his carrisge, he found a long file of voters ahead of him, to east his bailot.

The novelty of the situation soon brought a throng of people, includ-ing college men, who stood by and enjoyed it vastly. When after long delay, Mr. Cleveland reached the bellot box William Bredy, a town marshal, without looking up, asked "Your name please?"

"Grover Cleveland," was the re-

B g your pardon," he said, "but you are not registered here."
Mr Cleveland turned and left. He laughed good naturedly as he walked to his carriage. The crowd followed him as he drove to Cnambers | Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga. street, where the second polling place was situated. Land cheering greeted Mr. Cleve land there as he walked toward the polls with determined face. Walk ing into the building, he stopped a moment to talk with a fellow resident of the town and was recounting his vicissitudes at the other polling place. Just then Peter Mehan, the town constable, whe was clearing the space between the railings leading up to the polls, said in a loud voice

"You will have to get out of here my man. This place is meant for voters, and we can't have any loaf ers hadging about blocking up the passage. M ve along, move along. A wild roar of laughter b oke from the crowd at the constable, who evidently did not recognize Mr. Cleve land. The ex-President pushed for ward and was allowed to cast his bal were more cheers for Mr. Cleveland
